Texas Department of Criminal Justice (TDCJ) staff donated a total of $914,014 to the 2012 State Employee Charitable Campaign \(SECC\) fundraising drive, with $361,952 raised in cash donations and $552,062 through payroll deductions. This year's total donation fell just short of 2011's record-setting figure.

When asked about the 2012 fundraising campaign, TDCJ SECC Coordinator Carie Beaty noted, "Once again, TDCJ employees proved to be extremely generous, working to support another successful statewide fundraising campaign."

This year's notable contributions included $8,300 raised through a "bailout" fundraiser at the Connally Unit, $7,800 raised by Austin Parole Headquarters, and $3,600 raised by Manufacturing and Logistics' barbecue and silent auction.

The SECC marked its 19th year of service in 2012. ●
